ATTENTION: LINDA ROSALINA

Linda,

Thank you for reporting your concerns through the Johnson & Johnson Integrity Line.

In 2023, Johnson & Johnson separated its Consumer Health business, creating Kenvue as an independent company. Johnson & Johnson has provided us with a summary of your complaint, and we are currently awaiting receipt of the referenced attachment.

Kenvue takes allegations regarding suppliers' environmental sustainability, social responsibility, and ethical business practices very seriously. Upon receipt, we will promptly review the attachment as part of our assessment of the concerns you have raised.

Thank you again for bringing this matter to our attention.

Kim
